School Board to Visit Districts of Superintendent Candidates

Baton Rouge, LA – School Board members and a few administrators will be on the road Wednesday, March 11, as they begin touring the Jackson Public School District in Mississippi. A tentative schedule has Board members visiting the Montgomery School District on Wednesday, March 18. The purpose of the tours is to get more information about the final two candidates for the position of superintendent of East Baton Rouge Parish Schools System (EBRPSS).

Last week, the School Board narrowed its choice of candidates from three to two, following the application withdrawal of candidate Dr. John Covington, superintendent of Pueblo City Schools in Colorado. The two candidates now vying for the superintendent's position here are John Dilworth, superintendent of Montgomery Public Schools, and Dr. Bonita Coleman-Potter, deputy superintendent of Instruction for the Jackson Public School District in Mississippi.

School Board members planning to visit the Jackson school district on Wednesday include: President Jerry Arbour, Vice President Jonathan Augustine, Tarvald Smith and Darryl Robertson. Joining the group will be EBRPSS Director for Communications and Community Engagement, Chris Trahan and EBRPSS attorney Domoine Rutledge.

Additionally, a special School Board meeting is scheduled for 5 p.m. on Tuesday, March 17. The meeting was called to gather public input as the Board moves towards selecting a new superintendent.
